SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1869.

"STANDARD AND SENTINEL OWNED BY THE RING."

The President of the North Carolina Railroad, unable to give reason, and argument to sustain Governor Holden's lease of the North Carolina Railroad, think it should be done because "the SENTINEL and Standard as I (he) understand, are owned by the Generals of the Ring." We tell the President, he understands what Whitaker dreampt.

Last winter the Standard charged that the SENTINEL was a bankrupt concern and the former proprietor would again assume control over it. Mr Pell desired to state that he had been fully paid for his press.—We told him it was not necessary—the public felt little concern about it, whether he was paid or not.

We can say, no man of the Ring has any title, claim or lease upon the SENTINEL.—Mr. Pell has none, he was paid last February and made a bill of sale for the property according to the orders of the purchaser who was the Father of the Editor. Now Major Smith must give another reason for leasing the Road, other than the fact that the SENTINEL belongs to the "Generals of the Ring."

As to the Standard we cant answer, it has always been said that the Ring master of the lease bought the Standard of Governor Holden in conjunction with Littlefield and certain Wall Street brokers.

Wherever the title or property of the Standard may be, it is a poor argument with which to sustain the lease.

THE MILITIA AT SCOTT'S.

We are credibly informed that the collection of negro militia at Abraham Scott's, in White Oak district, was the work of one of Gov. Holden's tapsmt Justices of the Peace, who being applied to by the four scoundrels heretofore named, conceived himself officially authorized to call out the militia without consultation with any higher authority.

We are not surprised at this high handed and mischievous assumption of power, which might, but for the great forbearance of the people of that neighborhood, have terminated in bloodshed; for, in the first place, the Governor seems to have made it a point to select for Magistrates the most thorough John Donkeys he could pick out in many districts; and then those of them who could read, have not had an opportunity of learning the law or their duty, on account of the delay of the public printer in getting out the laws.

This Justice of the Peace, in this matter, was guilty of malfeasance in office; will the Governor dismiss him, or have him indicted? Hardly. He has certainly compromised His Excellency very seriously, but, then, he is a Radical friend and partisan, and it won't do to deal harshly with him. 'Sich is life, Pip."

THAT CIRCULAR.—We have received the long printed address of Maj Smith, in regard to the Railroad lease, with a request to publish. Its length and the crowded state of our columns prevent compliance, as there is very little in it—nothing in fact, which in the light of sound reason, would warrant the iniquitous transaction sought to be consumated on the 14th inst. The only very remarkable feature about it is, that it makes the nett gain of the road for the year ending May 31, 1869, only $188,023.56, whereas, Maj. Smith's report to the Stockholders makes the nett income considerably over $300,000. Now, there is an error somewhere about here—Maj. Smith was either "blowing" when he made his report to the Stockholders, or he is "blowing" now in favor of the lease, from which, we opine, he is to experience some material benefit, when consumated.

We regret to learn, says the Greensboro' Patriot, that the valuable mills, known as the old Foulk's Mills, ten miles North of Greensboro', were destroyed by fire on Tuesday night last. This is a heavy loss both upon the community and Mr. Jas. Foulks, who had just put the mill in the very best repair. There were several hundred bushels of grain stored in the mill.—It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

At a recent examination of election corruption, at Bridgewater, England, it turned out that the money was distributed by a stranger, who was only known by the astronomical soubriquet of "The man in the moon." This practice is very common in the eastern portion of Connecticut. In North Stonington, Voluntown, and several other towns on the border, at every State election, a stranger appears, hires a room, and pays every man who will sell his vote to the Radicals, the price that he demands. It has become a regular institution in that part of the State. When the polls close, this "man in the moon" settles his cash account, and quietly disappears.—When the next election day comes round, another stranger appears, purchases the usual Republican majority, and in his turn departs.

There will be a grand Tournament and Ball at Fort Mills, on the 11th Inst.

GREENSBORO', Nov. 3d, 1869.

During the year 1867, in Mr. Turner's administration of the North Carolina Railroad, Dr. Hawkins, in his great desire to get the immense freight of the North Carolina Railroad, proposed to Mr. Turner, if he would allow this freight to go over the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, he would pay the North Carolina Railroad the same that it got for carrying it to Goldsboro', to this Mr. Turner assented, if the shippers desired to ship by it.

The year following, 1868, in Mr. Smith's administration, Dr. Hawkins, not satisfied with getting nearly all the freight, sought and obtained from the North Carolina Railroad an almost exclusive contract for carrying this freight for five years. But this five year contract did not satisfy the greed of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, so this year, 1869, it comes forward and wants you to hand over to it the entire Road bed, 223 miles, rolling stock, shops, depots, tracts and every species of property, amounting, in value to-day, to at least $6,000,000, for 20 years, and that too, for the contemptible sum of $240,000 a year. Dr. Hawkins and the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will not be satisfied with this, for grant the request this time, as you have on the two former occasions, and before the end of next year he and his Road will propose to buy out the North Carolina Railroad entirely and change the name of it to the Eastern and Western branch of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and well he may be able to propose to buy out the Road, for before half the time of this lease has passed away he will have made more out of the Road than would buy the whole corporation.

Let not the Stockholders be divided. The North Carolina Railroad is worth four times what the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad offers for it—hence the great desire of that greedy corporation to have this lease consummated in such haste as not to give time for consideration.

Let this lease once be made and it closes all hope of our ever being on the great thro' line for freight and travel.

The air-line from Atlanta will never consent to place itself in control of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, (if we are so ignominious as to do it,) and the consequence will be the terminus of that great Road will not be at Charlotte, but will be at Danville or even higher up, and Greensboro' will be entirely off the great through line and have to content itself with being a local station of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and pay too an enormous price for that poor privilege. Can the Stockholders of our place submit quietly to this beautiful prospect? If we can, then we deserve this fate and should turn our backs uncomplainingly and let the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad tie our hands behind us and kick us aside as unworthy of further notice.

Shall we who stand here on the very spot where the first ground was broken for this magnificent work, and listened to the eloquent strains of the best and noblest of the land, in predicting for us a glorious future, consent to it, now at the very time when these predictions of its most sanguine friends are more than realized?

Let us never consent to it. Let us rise up as one man, and protest against this infamous lease, as unworty of our consideration, and an insult to our understanding.

GUILFORD.

THE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE SENSES—A REMARKABLE CASE.—In the last number of the Mutes' Chronicle, published at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in this city, Superintendent Fay has the following interesting account of one of the pupils named William E Morfier: "This pupil, in his misfortune, illustrates the intimate connection between the senses of hearing and seeing in their origin. Last year, while a pupil at the Blind Asylum, he suddenly recovered his sight, with a simultaneous loss of hearing and power of speech. Accordingly, at the opening of this term he was transferred to this institution, and has been in all respects a genuine deaf mute. Last Sunday he was attacked with severe neuralgic pain in his head and chest, resulting soon in perfect restoration of hearing and the loss of sight, without even the power of raising the eyelids. His faculty of speech has not returned to him, but he communicates by the manual alphabet. He still suffers considerable pain."—Columbus Statesman.

There was lately a strike by the journey butchers of Stettin, Prussia, with a singular aim. The masters have from time immemorial assumed the priviledge of addressing their workmen as "thou" and "thee"—a familiarity which made them very uneasy and dissatisfied. Therefore, although their wages and their hours of labor were entirely satisfactory, they struck for the privilege of being addressed as "you." The master butchers, on hearing the complaint, told the workmen that they thought the practice of giving and receiving presents on New Year's day was far more likely to lower the workman's feeling of self-respect than being addressed as "thou." A compromise was therefore effected, and the workmen will be called "you" at the expense of the loss of their annual presents.

A writer in the London Telegraph says he examined, a couple of years ago, in the Doge's palace, at Venice, a very old manuscript map of the globe, on which he saw marked the two lakes of Nyanza said to have been recently discovered by Speke and Baker. That writer might also have remembered that the celebrated Sanson's map of the world, published in Paris in 1688, shows the same two lakes, plainly represented, and called the "Big and Little Nyanza." It is good to see all our adventurous discoverers handsomely praised by literary men and the rest of mankind; but it would seem that the ancient travellers and geographers knew a good deal of what the moderns make a merit of re-discovering.—N. Y. Times.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES IN AMERICA.—At the American Social Science Association, in New York city, Mr. A. R. Spofford, the librarian of Congress, read an interesting report on public libraries. From this paper it appears that while no library in America has yet reached 200,000 volumes, there are over twenty in Europe that have passed that number. The ten largest public libraries in the United States ranked as follows in 1869: Library of Congress, Washington, 183,000 volumes; Boston Public Library, 153,000; Astor Library, New York, 138,000; Harvard College Library, Cambridge, 118,000; Mercantile Library, New York, 104,500; Anthenæum Library, Boston, 100,000; Philadelphia Library Company, 85,000; New York State Library, Albany, 76,000; New York Society Library, New York, 57,000; Yale College Library, New Haven, 50,000.

A manufacturer in the north of France is making pocket-handkerchiefs upon which the murder of the Kinck family by Troupmann is represented in high colors, as the stories of the "Iliad" are sometimes represented upon tapestries. They will make a very neat and subdued toilet ornament—a nice thing to sport at tea parties and wedding breakfasts.

KU KLUX AND LOYAL LEAGUES.

Governor Holden's organs are attempting to defend his late partisan proclamation upon the ground that he could not include a denunciation of the Loyal Leagues in connection with the Ku Klux, because the former is a secret political society, while the latter is an armed military organization for the purpose of committing crimes.—Admitting this to be true we cannot see how this justifies the Governor in reciting the crimes committed by one set of men, with painstaking and exaggerating care, while he at the same time, with partisan prejudice, conceals the crime for which the former were in every instance only in retaliation. It could not be from ignorance. It could not be by accident. It must have resulted from a definite and devised purpose to shield party friends and to punish party foes. We hope we see in the editorial address which the Governor has published in the appointment of a peace commissioner, and in the delay in forwarding his militia, that he repents of the partisan proclamation he has made, and will undo the mischief which its publication has done.

While we know nothing of the organizations of the Ku Klux or the Loyal Leagues, for we have never belonged to a secret political society, and believe them detrimental to republicanism, we are not prepared to admit that one is an organization for the purpose of committing crimes and the other the nursery of loyalty. We must judge of the tree by its fruits. However praiseworthy may have been the intentions of the founders of the Loyal Leagues, the organization has been perverted by bad men into schools for crime and indolence. It has been the source of nine-tenth of the evils which have followed in the train of emancipation. It may indeed have been a good armory to drill the political recruits of Radicalism, but it was an evil one to learn the duties of citizenship. The crimes committed in the earlier months after the war, and which caused the people in some portions of the State to organize for mutual protection, were almost universally committed by members of the Loyal League. We have seen members of the League, caught in the act of committing crimes, taken by their fellow members from the officers of the law upon the streets of this city, and never made to answer for their crimes. We have known the time when the arrest of a Loyal Leaguer in Wilmington, regardless of the offence which he had committed, was attended with difficulty and danger.—We know not what obligations bound them together, but we state facts which have occurred under our own observation and knowledge.

The same condition of things existed throughout the State, and in some counties the crimes were more frequent and flagrant. This state of affairs resulted from the direct teachings of the Leagues or from a belief that such conduct would not be punished, and the offenders find protection from the civil or military departments of the government. None of them were punished, and this immunity caused a rapid increase in the number and boldness of crimes.

It was in this crisis that counter organizations were formed for mutual protection. Some may have been bound together by oaths, but many had no other rallying cry but self-protection—the first great law of nature. We do not here propose to go into an argument as to how far the citizen may go for protection when the law is inadequate, or its administrators unwilling, to furnish it. We know what they will do under such circumstances, and what human nature justifies them in. These organizations were intended only, as we honestly believe, for protection. If, in some instances, they have taken the law into their own hands, it has always been to punish some offender of the League who had made himself amenable to the law, but had not been punished. We are no defenders of such conduct. Men who violate the law should be adequately punished—the majesty of the law should be vindicated at all hazards. But we can see how citizens, law abiding citizens, may be led into the committal of acts which they would scorn to do, had they not lost confidence in the ability or will of their duly constituted authorities to afford them protection; who did not believe that a band of political criminals in their midst were afforded protection by the officers themselves.

If the Governor will disband his Loyal Leaguers all counter organizations will at once be broken up. If all criminals are dealt with without favor, citizens will not be tempted to take the law into their own hands. If our civil officers will act so as to deserve the confidence of the people, the old regard and veneration for the law will return. And when it does, Loyal Leagueism, and its offspring, Ku Kluxism, will be buried in a common grave.—Wil. Journal.

EGYPT.

Sir Samuel Baker's Expedition up the Nile.

News from Alexandria states that three several parties of Sir Samuel Bakers expedition have left for the rendezvous at Khartoum. Twelve hundred soldiers started from Cairo about three months ago, to form part of a small army of 2,000 infantry, 250 irregular cavalry, and three batteries of guns, mustering at Khartoum. The second detachment consisted of a quantity of merchandise, and the third of thirty-five barges and seven river steamers, which have safely passed the formidable cataract at Dongola. These vessels are intended to convey the expedition from Khartoum to Gondokoro, the land between those two points being so marshy as to be impassible for troops. Two other portions of the expedition remain, and are to leave as soon as Mr. Samuda's steel steamers arrive from England. Sir Samuel Baker, who commands the first party, will be accompanied by Lady Baker, his nephew, and Dr. Gedge. His firman styles him "Governor General of all the Provinces that he may succeed in annexing to Egypt." At Khartoum Sir Samuel will resume the command of the whole expedition, and go by the river to Gondokoro. Fifteen miles south of that point the grand depot and first station is to be made. The chief difficulty is expected from the Barry tribe, who are very warlike and unmanageable. There is no road through their country, and the expedition will therefore have the arduous task of making one before them.

Arrived at the point where it is supposed the rapids cease, one of the steel steamers will be put together, and Sir Samuel will proceed on an exploring expedition as far as the Lakes. He will establish fortified posts at every available spot, and endeavor to subjugate the different tribes.

A negro in Campbell Co., Va., convicted of having participated in the rape and abduction of a respectable white girl, has been granted a new trial, and bailed in the sum of $2000! Need there be any wonder that negroes do not cease to commit the most atrocious crimes in the South?

The United States has 6,000,000 dogs. It is proposed to tax these animals a dollar a head, so as to afford Radical office holders and wire pullers $6,000,000 more dollars a year to "work" elections, and purchase purple and fine linen with. Tax, tax, tax—that is all the poor can get from the opponents of Democracy.

GEN. BUTTERFIELD AND "THE BOY THAT WAS "BADLY WOUNDED."

Reverting to the charges against Sub Treasurer Butterfield, a writer in the World makes some curious revelations, going to show that even during the war he (B.) used his official position in the army to promote private speculations in Wall street. The writer, in proof of this, says:

"At the battle of Chancellorsville, Butterfield, with the rank of Major General of Volunteers, held the position of Chief of Staff to the Commanding General. His position made him the executive officer of the army, and admitted him to a full knowledge, not merely of the plans of the battle, but of its progress and all its varying chances. As Chief of Staff he issued an order absolutely closing telegraphic communication with the rear, not even the government being permitted to send or receive despatches to or from the army."

Notwithstanding this, however, it is charged Butterfield managed to keep up a pretty keen private correspondence with parties in Wall street, as if to turn the Chancellorsville disaster to account in the stock and gold markets there, before anybody else could get the news. The first of these alleged private dispatches was as follows:

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May, 2, 1863.

To Leonard W. Jerome, New York:

The boy is wounded. D. B.

The date of this dispatch and its tenor intimate that it must have been sent immediately after the disaster to the Eleventh Corps. At a later hour, when more definite accounts of that disaster were received at headquarters, and when Sickles, with the Third Corps, was cut off from the rest of the army, a second dispatch was sent, reading as follows:

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 2, 1863.

To Leonard W. Jerome, New York:

The boy is badly wounded. D. B.

And then on the following day, when the rebels pressed their advantages, and drove our army into their contracted and hastily thrown up earthworks, two miles nearer the river than where they first met the enemy, and the salvation of the army seemed to depend on Sedgwick's ability to join it from below Fredericksburg, a third dispatch was sent as follows:

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC; May 3, 1863.

To Leonard W. Jerome, New York:

The boy, we fear, is mortally wounded. D. B.

The "World" writer goes on to say that Gen. Eckert, Superintendent of Military Telegrams, thinking there was something singular about these dispatches, took them to the Secretary of War, who in turn took them to the President. We quote further:

"The President sent for the Secretary of State, who had always been Butterfield's friend and backer, and showed him the dispatches, and announced his determination to act upon the recommendation of the Secretary of War. Mr. Seward begged that extreme measures be not resorted to. 'He is a young man,' plead the venerable Secretary, 'and has been inveigled into this crime by the Wall street speculators. Suspend him and send him to me. I'll lecture him, and will be responsible for his future conduct.' The President was won by the charitable views of the Secretary of State; Butterfield was suspended, and ordered to Washington; was severely reprimanded by his venerable patron, and, at his request, reinstated and sent back to the army."

Notwithstanding all this, however, the writer adds, that Butterfield's Chancellorsville despatches reached New York before any intimation of the result of the battle was received, and operations in gold to a large amount were predicated upon them.

A FEARFUL (WOMAN'S) DEVELOPMENT.

We should be sorry to cast ridicule upon those advocates of "woman's rights" who restrict their demands within bonds which all the world is disposed to respect. Let woman have an equal chance with men in all callings or professions—let inequalities of the laws be redressed. But some of the female regenerators of society go to work in a very strange way if they really wish to exalt their sex. A correspondent of an evening cotemporary met a missionary of this kind the other night. She had taken possession of his sleeping berth. He remonstrated with her, but she merely remarked she was not afraid to sleep in his room. Of course she never asked a question about his feelings in the matter. Presently the gentleman thought to frighten his unwelcomely visitor. The strong-minded one very naturally despised the artifice.—She was "not afraid" of a man, no matter in what guise he presented himself. The owner of the state-room laid himself down to sleep; the lovely woman did the same, having first "made herself ready." We confess that this is a truly alarming narrative. Woman is asserting her rights at a rate which promises to make some of us uncomfortable. Where is it all to stop? The invader of the sleeping car, we are told, "bears a name which is perpetually appearing in the papers." She only carries her precepts into practice, poor thing. But really it is getting to be a very serious business for the inferior creature called man.—Times.

A vagrant, says the Western Vindicator was noticed in this village (Rutherfordton) last week. His appearance was suspicious, but it was not known until Thursday morning that he had stolen one of Mr. Hodge's horses, Mr H. pursued him on the Asheville road to Reedy Patch Gap, but did not come up with him, although only a few hours behind.

In connection with the above, we regret to learn that a son of Mr. Hodge was seriously wounded by the accidental discharge of a pistol, on Saturday night. Mr. H. was making preparations to follow the horse thief, and dropping the pistol, which he was loading, on the floor, it was discharged, and the ball entered the thigh of his little son, shattering the bone fearfully.

Corn stealing seems to be all the rage in some of our Western counties.

An excursion train from Indiana, in charge of Mr. Addison Coffin, arrived at Greensboro last week, with 202 passengers. The passengers were mostly persons who had emigrated from that section, on a visit back to see their relatives and friends. So says the Register.

The Festival given last week by the Methodist Church, in Greensboro', was a decided success.

A disgraceful scene occurred at a meeting of the City Council of Charleston on Thursday evening. Some of the members denounced the Mayor in the severest terms, and were equally as bitter in their allusions to each other. Alderman T. J. Mackey and his nephew, E. W. M. Mackey, had a war of words, during which the former drew a pistol and fired on the latter, not doing any damage, however. He fired three shots during the melee, and afterwards apologized for the little indiscretion.

There will be no Mass to-morrow (Sunday, Nov. 8,) in the Roman Catholic Church.

ANOTHER CLUB.—We tender our thanks to Thomas Wilcox, Esq., for a club of ten new subscribers, with the cash. Our list is gradually growing, especially for the weekly edition. We ask our friends throughout the State to lend their aid in extending our circulation; the people ought to be informed in regard to the movements of public men and public measures, and the SENTINEL will keep them posted. The approaching session of the General Assembly will be an important one; much of the bad legislation of former sessions will be attempted to be plaistered over, and a great deal of new in the same direction inaugurated. Let the people be informed in regard to the action of their public servants, so that they may know what reward to mete out to them.

FORDS DRAMATIC TROUP.—As previously announced, Mr. John T. Ford, with a full corps of well known and popular artists, will open at Tucker Hall on Monday evening 8th inst., with a representation of Buckstone's famous comedy, in three acts, entitled "MARRIED LIFE." The evening's entertainment will conclude with the laughable Irish comedy. "Irish Assurance."

These representations will be given with proper costumes, fitting surroundings in scenery, furniture and appointments, and conducted by artists of professional popularity and experience.

The announcement for Tuesday night, is the delightful Comedy, "Every Body's Friend."

For Wednesday night, "SCHOOL" as acted in London with brilliant success, an entire season.

Price at admission &c., will be announced in due time.

CITY SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—We learn that there will be a mass meeting of the teachers and pupils of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist Church Sunday Schools in the Baptist Church to-morrow, (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Several short addresses will be delivered appropriate to the occasion. All interested are invited to attend.

NICE HAM.—J. W. Wheeler keeps very nice family hams at his Stall at the Baptist Grove Market, where, also, may be found various meats, sausage, &c. None can fail to be suited who will give him a call."

DEATH OF A GOOD MAN.—The Telegraph announces the death of George Peabody, which occurred in London at midnight, Nov. 4th. He was, we believe, a native of Danvers, Mass., but for a long period, he has resided in Europe. He seemed to realize the full purport of the scripture declaration, "where much is given, much will be required." He had been greatly blessed and prospered, and his natures is charitable donations were commensurate with his increase. His name will be remembered and honored when that of many a warrior and statesman shall be forgotten.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS.—The news today settles the uncertainty of the complexion of the New York Legislature, two majority in the Senate for the Democrats, and at least twelve in the lower house. This is a good working majority.

EXPANSIVE.—The man with the legs, who gets up the literary light dishes for the Standard readers—(we are not alluding to Pike's wit, now, for that is as heavy as a late supper,) has localized the forests of Alabama.

"No past up Utica confines our powers. But the whole boundless continent is ours," to make locals of.

THE LOUISIANA EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.—This is one of the very best companies in the country. It has the endorsement of Bishop Wilmer, Gens. Beauregard, Hood, Harry Hays and the leading men of New Orleans. General Beauregard says: "Its Officers and Directors have been selected from our most reliable and intelligent citizens.

Instead of sending $40,000,000 annually North, our citizens can find better companies at home.

BOOK NOTICES.

TURNER'S NORTH CAROLINA ALMANAC FOR 1870. Raleigh, James H. Enniss, Publisher.

This Almanac so long and favorably known to the people of the State, has been greatly enlarged and improved.—Among its many excellencies, we note the following. The Calendar pages are in larger type, and are followed by "Conjectures of the Weather," and "Garden Calendars" for every month of special interest to Farmers and Horticulturists. In addition to the matters relative to the State Government, its Courts and other Public Institutions, we find the Rates of Postage, Digests of the Stamp Act, and the Mechanics and Laborer's Lien Law; Tables of Wages, of Weights and Measures; invaluable Farm and Household Recipes, and a seasoning of capitol anecdotes. These, with the outside calendar, in large clear type, for ready reference, attest the superiority of this Almanac, and render it indispensable to the comfort of every well-regulated family. It is a cheap almanac for ten cents, which is the retail price.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—The two new cottages, erected by Mr. Shaffer, on Fayetteville street, near the Governor's mansion are nearly ready for the painter. They are unique in style and very pretty.

The colored Baptist Church is having a belfry attached to their church building, which will add much to its appearance.

The rather uncouth dwelling, east of the Baptist Grove, at present occupied by Mr. W. R. Pepper, has been much improved by the erection of a porch in front, which hides its former somewhat naken appearance.

Mr. James M. Harris has finished the walls and roof of his new store, in East Ward, made of fragments of stone and bricks mixed with lime mortar. It is of a very substantial and durable character, and said to be the cheapest manner of building in vogue. This house is 40 by 20 feet, two stories high, and will cost when finished, about $700. Mr. Harris is so pleased with his success that he is erecting another house on his dwelling lot, on the same plan.

We notice that Mr. Alfred Upchurch is collecting the timbers for the erection of two dwellings on the Murray lot, on Hargett street.

In the Northeastern part of the city, nearly opposite the Rayner place, Col. Heck has dug the foundation and commenced the erection of a dwelling which will be an ornament to the locality.

Near the "new Depot," Mr. Simpson has a very pretty cottage approaching completion; which commands a fine view, being on an elevation above the surrounding grounds.

OFFICERS OF THE CUBA. We understand a number of the Cuba's officers arrived in the city last night. They are on their way to New York, where they are bailed to appear on the 8th inst., to answer in the U. S. District Court, a breach of the neutrality laws,

For the Sentinel.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Allow me, through the medium of your paper to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to the good citizens of Raleigh, both white and colored, for their strenuous efforts and deep sympathy in my behalf, during the late fire on Hargett street. I hold them all in grateful remembrance. Respectfully,

A. D. TAYLOR.

Nov. 6th 1869.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—'Tis seldom I allow myself to notice such a contemptible article as the one which appeared in the Standard of the 4th instant, relative to the Fire Department of our city. Being one of its members, and knowing what was done by them I could not quietly submit to such a censure without giving vent to my opinion relative to it.

Appearing, as it did, in the Local column of the above name journal, the supposition is that the Local Editor is responsible therefor.

'Tis true he graced the street with his beautiful physiognomy with both hands in his pantaloons pockets, disinterested enough to convince persons that the sole object of his wish was to get an item.—How much work did he do? What advantage was he to the sufferers—none whatever. Like a drone in a hive of bees, too lazy to work, he blames those who did it, although he is ever ready and willing to enjoy the honey.

'Tis true the facilities of the Fire Department are very limited, but with the means they have I think they acted nobly. What however is the use of any one's attempting to exert himself at a fire? What thanks does he get? Property owners never compensate him, no not even with a uniform.

Under such circumstances can you blame him? Having consumed too much time already in reply to the above named article, I hope that should any fire of importance occur near him, in stead of standing like a statue, he will make use of what strength God has given him and not censure others for so doing.

A MEMBER OF THE FIRE COMPANY.

MARYLAND ELECTIONS.—The additional returns received yesterday indicate beyond a doubt the success of the regular Democratic Conservative ticket in every county in the State. So far as is known no Republican has been elected, even in the county offices, and, with one or two exceptions, no independent candidate. The vote cast in the counties is larger in proportion than that of Baltimore city and wherever the issue was doubtful the Republican ticket has been defeated by greatly increased majorities. Thus, Washington county gives a Democratic majority of more than four hundred votes over that of the last Presidential election, and considerably above that given at the election for Governor in 1867. The State Legislature will be composed, as heretofore, entirely of Democratic Conservatives.

$30 REWARD.

I WILL PAY THIS REWARD FOR THE APprehension of a mulatto man, about 20 or 25 years old, who calls himself J. Beckman, (probably Blacknall) and says he is from Orange county, and was on his way to Raleigh to join Gov. Holden's army; to others he stated he was from Greensboro' and was going to Goldsboro' where he has a brother. He broke into and robbed my store at Brassfields, on Tuesday night last and sold a number of the stolen articles along the way towards Raleigh, by which he can be identified. I will give the above reward, for his apprehension and delivery to an officer of the law, so that he may be properly dealt with.

Dr. D. B. Warring, a prominent physician died suddenly this morning.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The death of the philanthropist, George Peabody creates a profound sensation. Nearly all the morning papers have obituary articles. The Times says, "The news of Mr. Peabody's death will be received with no common sorrow on both sides of the Atlantic. The sentiment of regret will not be a mere passing tribute of gratitude to a munificent benefactor Mr. Peabody, through a long life accumulated manifold titles to be lamented. He was an ardent patriot, and was loved abroad as much as at home. He was a New Englander, who, when the South was bowed down to the dust stepped forward and claimed a right to succor her.

"He was no courtier, yet he was honored by sovereigns and princes; he was profuse in his charity, which pamperized nobody; he was a philanthropist who was liked as well as honored. There was no hing hard or narrow about his philanthropy; he simply did whatever good came in his way."

To-morrow will be a holiday. The Queen will visit the city to open the new Bridge and viaduct.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

"STANDARD AND SENTINEL OWNED BY THE RING."

The President of the North Carolina Railroad, unable to give reason, and argument to sustain Governor Holden's lease of the North Carolina Railroad, think it should be done because "the SENTINEL and Standard as I (he) understand, are owned by the Generals of the Ring." We tell the President, he understands what Whitaker dreampt.

Last winter the Standard charged that the SENTINEL was a bankrupt concern and the former proprietor would again assume control over it. Mr Pell desired to state that he had been fully paid for his press.—We told him it was not necessary—the public felt little concern about it, whether he was paid or not.

We can say, no man of the Ring has any title, claim or lease upon the SENTINEL.—Mr. Pell has none, he was paid last February and made a bill of sale for the property according to the orders of the purchaser who was the Father of the Editor. Now Major Smith must give another reason for leasing the Road, other than the fact that the SENTINEL belongs to the "Generals of the Ring."

As to the Standard we cant answer, it has always been said that the Ring owned the lease bought the Standard of Governor Holden in conjunction with Littlefield and certain Wall Street brokers.

Wherever the title or property of the Standard may be, it is a poor argument with which to sustain the lease.

THE MILITIA AT SCOTT'S.

We are credibly informed that the collection of negro militia at Abraham Scott's, in White Oak district, was the work of one of Gov. Holden's sapient Justices of the Peace, who being applied to by the four scoundrels heretofore named, conceived himself officially authorized to call out the militia without consultation with any higher authority.

We are not surprised at this high handed and mischievous assumption of power, which might, but for the great forbearance of the people of that neighborhood, have terminated in bloodshed; for, in the first place, the Governor seems to have made it a point to select for Magistrates the most thorough John Donkeys he could pick out in many districts; and then those of them who could read, have not had an opportunity of learning the law or their duty, on account of the delay of the public printer in getting out the laws.

This Justice of the Peace, in this matter, was guilty of malfeasance in office; will the Governor dismiss him, or have him indicted? Hardly. He has certainly compromised His Excellency very seriously, but, then, he is a Radical friend and partisan, and it won't do to deal harshly with him. 'Sich is life, Pip."

THAT CIRCULAR.—We have received the long printed address of Maj Smith, in regard to the Railroad lease, with a request to publish. Its length and the crowded state of our columns prevent compliance, as there is very little in it—nothing in fact, which in the light of sound reason, would warrant the iniquitous transaction sought to be consumated on the 14th inst. The only very remarkable feature about it is, that it makes the nett gain of the road for the year ending May 31, 1869, only $188, 063 56, whereas, Maj. Smith's report to the Stockholders makes the nett income considerably over $300,000. Now, there is an error somewhere about here—Maj. Smith was either "blowing" when he made his report to the Stockholders, or he is "blowing" now in favor of the lease, from which, we opine, he is to experience some material benefit, when consumated.

We regret to learn, says the Greensboro' Patriot, that the valuable mills, known as the old Foulk's Mills, ten miles North of Greensboro', were destroyed by fire on Tuesday night last. This is a heavy loss both upon the community and Mr. Jas. Foulke, who had just put the mill in the very best repair. There were several hundred bushels of grain stored in the mill.—It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

At a recent examination of election corruption, at Bridgewater, England, it turned out that the money was distributed by a stranger, who was only known by the astronomical soubriquet of "The man in the moon." This practice is very common in the eastern portion of Connecticut. In North Stonington, Voluntown, and several other towns on the border, at every State election, a stranger appears, hires a room, and pays every man who will sell his vote to the Radicals, the price that he demands. It has become a regular institution in that part of the State. When the polls close, this "man in the moon" settles his cash account, and quietly disappears.—When the next election day comes round, another stranger appears, purchases the usual Republican majority, and in his turn departs.

There will be a grand Tournament and Ball at Fort Mills, on the 11th inst.

GREENSBORO', Nov. 3d, 1869.

During the year 1867, in Mr. Turner's administration of the North Carolina Railroad, Dr. Hawkins, in his great desire to get the immense freight of the North Carolina Railroad, proposed to Mr. Turner, if he would allow this freight to go over the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, he would pay the North Carolina Railroad the same that it got for carrying it to Goldsboro', to this Mr. Turner assented, if the shippers desired to ship by it.

The year following, 1868, in Mr. Smith's administration, Dr. Hawkins, not satisfied with getting nearly all the freight, sought and obtained from the North Carolina Railroad an almost exclusive contract for carrying this freight for five years. But this five year contract did not satisfy the greed of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, so this year, 1869, it comes forward and wants you to hand over to it the entire Road bed, 223 miles, rolling stock, shops, depots, tracts and every species of property, amounting, in value to-day, to at least $6,000,000, for 20 years, and that too, for the contemptible sum of $240,000 a year. Dr. Hawkins and the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will not be satisfied with this, for grant the request this time, as you have on the two former occasions, and before the end of next year he and his Road will propose to buy out the North Carolina Railroad entirely and change the name of it to the Eastern and Western branch of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and well he may be able to propose to buy out the Road, for before half the time of this lease has passed away he will have made more out of the Road than would buy the whole corporation.

Let not the Stockholders be divided. The North Carolina Railroad is worth four times what the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad offers for it—hence the great desire of that greedy corporation to have this lease consummated in such haste as not to give time for consideration.

Let this lease once be made and it closes all hope of our ever being on the great thro' line for freight and travel.

The air-line from Atlanta will never consent to place itself in control of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, (if we are so ignominious as to do it,) and the consequence will be the terminus of that great Road will not be at Charlotte, but will be at Danville or even higher up, and Greensboro' will be entirely off the great through line and have to contest itself with being a local station of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and pay too an enormous price for that poor privilege. Can the Stockholders of our place submit quietly to this beautiful prospect? If we can, then we deserve this fate and should turn our backs uncomplainingly and let the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad lie our hands behind us and kick us aside as unworthy of further notice.

Shall we who stand here on the very spot where the first ground was broken for this magnificent work, and listened to the eloquent strains of the best and noblest of the land, in predicting for us a glorious future, consent to it, now at the very time when these predictions of its most sanguine friends are more than realized?

Let us never consent to it. Let us rise up as one man, and protest against this infamous lease, as unworty of our consideration, and an insult to our understanding.

GUILFORD.

THE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE SENSES—A REMARKABLE CASE.—In the last number of the Mutes' Chronicle, published at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in this city, Superintendent Fay has the following interesting account of one of the pupils named William E Morfier: "This pupil, in his misfortune, illustrates the intimate connection between the senses of hearing and seeing in their origin. Last year, while a pupil at the Blind Asylum, he suddenly recovered his sight, with a simultaneous loss of hearing and power of speech. Accordingly, at the opening of this term he was transferred to this institution, and has been in all respects a genuine deaf mute. Last Sunday he was attacked with severe neuralgic pain in his head and chest, resulting soon in perfect restoration of hearing and the loss of sight, without even the power of raising the eyelids. His faculty of speech has not returned to him, but he communicates by the manual alphabet. He still suffers considerable pain."—Columbus Statesman.

There was lately a strike by the journey butchers of Stettin, Prussia, with a singular aim. The masters have from time immemorial assumed the priviledge of addressing their workmen as "thou" and "thee"—a familiarity which made them very uneasy and dissatisfied. Therefore, although their wages and their hours of labor were entirely satisfactory, they struck for the privilege of being addressed as "you." The master butchers, on hearing the complaint, told the workmen that they thought the practice of giving and receiving presents on New Year's day was far more likely to lower the workman's feeling of self-respect than being addressed as "thou." A compromise was therefore effected, and the workmen will be called "you" at the expense of the loss of their annual presents.

A writer in the London Telegraph says he examined, a couple of years ago, in the Doge's palace, at Venice, a very old manuscript map of the globe, on which he saw marked the two lakes of Nyanza said to have been recently discovered by Speke and Baker. That writer might also have remembered that the celebrated Sanson's map of the world, published in Paris in 1688, shows the same two lakes, plainly represented, and called the "Big and Little Nyanza." It is good to see all our adventurous discoverers handsomely praised by literary men and the rest of mankind; but it would seem that the ancient travellers and geographers knew a good deal of what the moderns make a merit of re-discovering.—N. Y. Times.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES IN AMERICA.—At the American Social Science Association, in New York city, Mr. A. R. Spofford, the librarian of Congress, read an interesting report on public libraries. From this paper it appears that while no library in America has yet reached 200,000 volumes, there are over twenty in Europe that have passed that number. The ten largest public libraries in the United States ranked as follows in 1869: Library of Congress, Washington, 183 000 volumes; Boston Public Library, 153,000; Astor Library, New York, 138,000; Harvard College Library, Cambridge, 118,000; Mercantile Library, New York, 104 500; Antheneum Library, Boston, 100,000; Philadelphia Library Company, 85,000; New York State Library, Albany, 76,000; New York Society Library, New York, 57,000; Yale College Library, New Haven, 50,000.

A manufacturer in the north of France is making pocket-handkerchiefs upon which the murder of the Kinck family by Troupmann is represented in high colors, as the stories of the "Iliad" are sometimes represented upon tapestries. They will make a very neat and subdued toilet ornament—a nice thing to sport at tea parties and wedding breakfasts.

KU KLUX AND LOYAL LEAGUES.

Governor Holden's organs are attempting to defend his late partisan proclamation upon the ground that he could not include a denunciation of the Loyal Leagues in connection with the Ku Klux, because the former is a secret political society, while the latter is an armed military organization for the purpose of committing crimes—Admitting this to be true we cannot see how this justifies the Governor in reciting the crimes committed by one set of men, with painstaking and exaggerating care, while he at the same time, with partisan prejudice, conceals the crime for which the former were in every instance only in retaliation. It could not be from ignorance. It could not be by accident. It must have resulted from a definite and devised purpose to shield party friends and to punish party foes. We hope we see in the editorial address which the Governor has published; in the appointment of a peace commissioner, and in the delay in forwarding his militia, that he repents of the partisan proclamation he has made, and will undo the mischief which its publication has done.

While we know nothing of the organizations of the Ku Klux or the Loyal Leagues, for we have never belonged to a secret political society, and believe them detrimental to republicanism, we are not prepared to admit that one is an organization for the purpose of committing crimes and the other the nursery of loyalty. We must judge of the tree by its fruits. However praiseworthy may have been the intentions of the founders of the Loyal Leagues, the organization has been perverted by bad men into schools for crime and indolence. It has been the source of nine-tenth of the evils which have followed in the trail of emancipation. It may indeed have been a good armory to drill the political recruits of Radicalism, but it was an evil one to learn the duties of citizenship. The crimes committed in the earlier months after the war, and which caused the people in some portions of the State to organize for mutual protection, were almost universally committed by members of the Loyal League. We have seen members of the League, caught in the act of committing crimes, taken by their fellow members from the officers of the law upon the streets of this city, and never made to answer for their crimes. We have known the time when the arrest of a Loyal Leaguer in Wilmington, regardless of the offence which he had committed, was attended with difficulty and danger.—We know not what obligations bound them together, but we state facts which have occurred under our own observation and knowledge.

The same condition of things existed throughout the State, and in some counties the crimes were more frequent and flagrant. This state of affairs resulted from the direct teachings of the Leagues or from a belief that such conduct would not be punished, and the offenders find protection from the civil or military departments of the government. None of them were punished, and this immunity caused a rapid increase in the number and boldness of crimes.

It was in this crisis that counter organizations were formed for mutual protection. Some may have been bound together by oaths, but many had no other rallying cry but self-protection—the first great law of nature. We do not here propose to go into an argument as to how far the citizen may go for protection when the law is inadequate, or its administrators unwilling, to furnish it. We know what they will do under such circumstances, and what human nature justifies them in. These organizations were intended only, as we honestly believe, for protection. If, in some instances, they have taken the law into their own hands, it has always been to punish some offender of the League who had made himself amenable to the law, but had not been punished. We are no defenders of such conduct. Men who violate the law should be adequately punished—the majesty of the law should be vindicated at all hazards. But we can see how citizens, law abiding citizens, may be led into the committal of acts which they would scorn to do, had they not lost confidence in the ability or will of their duly constituted authorities to afford them protection; who did not believe that a band of political criminals in their midst were afforded protection by the officers themselves.

If the Governor will disband his Loyal Leaguers all counter organizations will at once be broken up. If all criminals are dealt with without favor, citizens will not be tempted to take the law into their own hands. If our civil officers will act so as to deserve the confidence of the people, the old regard and veneration for the law will return. And when it does, Loyal Leagueism, and its offspring, Ku Kluxism, will be buried in a common grave.—Wil. Journal.

EGYPT.

Sir Samuel Baker's Expedition up the Nile.

News from Alexandria states that three several parties of Sir Samuel Bakers expedition have left for the rendezvous at Khartoum. Twelve hundred soldiers starved from Cairo about three months ago, to form part of a small army of 2,000 infantry, 250 irregular cavalry, and three batteries of guns, mustering at Khartoum. The second detachment consisted of a quantity of merchandise, and the third of thirty-five barges and seven river steamers, which have safely passed the formidable cataract at Dongola. These vessels are intended to convey the expedition from Khartoum to Gondokoro, the land between those two points being so marshy as to be impassible for troops. Two other portions of the expedition remain, and are to leave as soon as Mr. Samuda's steel steamers arrive from England. Sir Samuel Baker, who commands the first party, will be accompanied by Lady Baker, his nephew, and Dr. Gedge. His firman styles him "Governor General of all the Provinces that he may succeed in annexing to Egypt." At Khartoum Sir Samuel will resume the command of the whole expedition, and go by the river to Goodokoro. Fifteen miles south of that point the grand depot and first station is to be made. The chief difficulty is expected from the Barry tribe who are very warlike and unmanageable. There is no road through their country, and the expedition will therefore have the arduous task of making one before them.

Arrived at the point where it is supposed the rapids cease, one of the steel steamers will be put together, and Sir Samuel will proceed on an exploring expedition as far as the Lakes. He will establish fortified posts at every available spot, and endeavor to subjugate the different tribes.

A negro in Campbell Co., Va., convicted of having participated in the rape and abduction of a respectable white girl, has been granted a new trial, and bailed in the sum of $300! Need there be any wonder that negroes do not cease to commit the most atrocious crimes in the South?

The United States has 6,000,000 dogs. It is proposed to tax these animals a dollar a head, so as to afford Radical office holders and wire pullers $6,000,000 more dollars a year to "work" elections, and purchase purple and fine linen with. Tax, tax, tax—that is all the poor can get from the opponents of Democracy.

GEN. BUTTERFIELD AND "THE BOY THAT WAS "BADLY WOUNDED."

Reverting to the charges against Sub Treasurer Butterfield, a writer in the World makes some curious revelations, going to show that even during the war he (B.) used his official position in the army to promote private speculations in Wall street. The writer, in proof of this, says:

"At the battle of Chancellorsville, Butterfield, with the rank of Major General of Volunteers, held the position of Chief of Staff to the Commanding General. His position made him the executive officer of the army, and admitted him to a full knowledge, not merely of the plans of the battle, but of its progress and all its varying chances. As Chief of Staff he issued an order absolutely closing telegraphic communication with the rear, not even the government being permitted to send or receive despatches to or from the army.

Notwithstanding this, however, it is charged Butterfield managed to keep up a pretty keen private correspondence with parties in Wall street, as if to turn the Chancellorsville disaster to account in the stock and gold markets there, before anybody else could get the news. The first of these alleged private dispatches was as follows:

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May, 2, 1863.

To Leonard W. Jerome, New York:

The boy is wounded. D. B.

The date of this dispatch and its tenor intimate that it must have been sent immediately after the disaster to the Eleventh Corps. At a later hour, when more definite accounts of that disaster were received at headquarters, and when Sickles, with the Third Corps, was cut off from the rest of the army, a second dispatch was sent, reading as follows:

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 2, 1863.

To Leonard W. Jerome, New York:

The boy is badly wounded. D. B.

And then on the following day, when the rebels pressed their advantages, and drove our army into their contracted and hastily thrown up earthworks, two miles nearer the river than where they first met the enemy, and the salvation of the army seemed to depend on Sedgwick's ability to join it from below Fredericksburg, a third dispatch was sent as follows:

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 3, 1863.

To Leonard W. Jerome, New York:

The boy, we fear, is mortally wounded. D. B.

The "World" writer goes on to say that Gen. Eckert, Superintendent of Military Telegrams, thinking there was something singular about these dispatches, took them to the Secretary of War, who in turn took them to the President. We quote further:

"The President sent for the Secretary of State, who had always been Butterfield's friend and backer, and showed him the dispatches, and announced his determination to act upon the recommendation of the Secretary of War. Mr. Seward begged that extreme measures be not resorted to. 'He is a young man,' plead the venerable Secretary, 'and has been inveigled into this crime by the Wall street speculators. Suspend him and send him to me. I'll lecture him, and will be responsible for his future conduct.' The President was won by the charitable views of the Secretary of State; Butterfield was suspended, and ordered to Washington; was severely reprimanded by his venerable patron, and, at his request, reinstated and sent back to the army."

Notwithstanding all this, however, the writer adds, that Butterfield's Chancellorsville despatches reached New York before any intimation of the result of the battle was received, and operations in gold to a large amount were predicated upon them.

A FEARFUL (WOMAN'S) DEVELOPMENT.

We should be sorry to cast ridicule upon those advocates of "woman's rights" who restrict their demands within bonds which all the world is disposed to respect. Let woman have an equal chance with men in all callings or professions—let inequalities of the laws be redressed. But some of the female regenerators of society go to work in a very strange way if they really wish to exalt their sex. A correspondent of an evening cotemporary met a missionary of this kind the other night. She had taken possession of his sleeping berth. He remonstrated with her, but she merely remarked she was not afraid to sleep in his room. Of course she never asked a question about his feelings in the matter. Presently the gentleman thought to frighten his unwelcomely visitor. The strong-minded one very naturally despised the artifice.—She was "not afraid" of a man, no matter in what guise he presented himself. The owner of the state-room laid himself down to sleep; the lovely woman did the same, having first "made herself ready." We confess that this is a truly alarming narative. Woman is asserting her rights at a rate which promises to make some of us uncomfortable. Where is it all to stop? The invader of the sleeping car, we are told, "bears a name which is perpetually appearing in the papers." She only carries her precepts into practice, poor thing. But really it is getting to be a very serious business for the inferior creature called man.—Times.

A vagrant, says the Western Vindicator was noticed in this village (Rutherfordton) last week. His appearance was suspicious, but it was not known until Thursday morning that he had stolen one of Mr. Hodge's horses, Mr H. pursued him on the Asheville road to Reedy Patch Gap, but did not come up with him, although only a few hours behind.

In connection with the above, we regret to learn that a son of Mr. Hodge was seriously wounded by the accidental discharge of a pistol, on Saturday night. Mr. H. was making preparations to follow the horse thief, and dropping the pistol, which he was loading, on the floor, it was discharged, and the ball entered the thigh of his little son, shattering the bone fearfully.

Corn stealing seems to be all the rage in some of our Western counties.

An excursion train from Indiana, in charge of Mr. Addison Coffin, arrived at Greensboro last week, with 202 passengers. The passengers were mostly persons who had emigrated from that section, on a visit back to see their relatives and friends. So says the Register.

The Festival given last week by the Methodist Church, in Greensboro', was a decided success.

A disgraceful scene occurred at a meeting of the City Council of Charleston on Thursday evening. Some of the members denounced the Mayor in the severest terms, and were equally as bitter in their allusions to each other. Alderman T. J. Mackey and his nephew, E. W. M. Mackey, had a war of words, during which the former drew a pistol and fired on the latter, not doing any damage, however. He fired three shots during the melee, and afterwards apologized for the little indiscretion.

There will be no Mass to morrow (Sunday, Nov. 8,) in the Roman Catholic Church.

ANOTHER CLUB.—We tender our thanks to Thomas Wilcox, Esq., for a club of ten new subscribers, with the cash. Our list is gradually growing, especially for the weekly edition. We ask our friends, throughout the State to lend their aid in extending our circulation; the people ought to be informed in regard to the movements of public men and public measures, and the SENTINEL will keep them posted. The approaching session of the General Assembly will be an important one; much of the bad legislation of former sessions will be attempted to be plastered over, and a great deal of new in the same direction inaugurated. Let the people be informed in regard to the action of their public servants, so that they may know what reward to mete out to them.

FORDS DRAMATIC TROUP.—As previously announced, Mr. John T. Ford, with a full corps of well known and popular artists, will open at Tucker Hall on Monday evening 8th inst., with a representation of Buckstone's famous comedy, in three acts, entitled "MARRIED LIFE." The evening's entertainment will conclude with the laughable Irish comedy. "Irish Assurance."

These representations will be given with proper costumes, fitting surroundings in scenery, furniture and appointments, and enacted by artists of professional popularity and experience.

The announcement for Tuesday night, is the delightful Comedy, "Every Body's Friend."

For Wednesday night, "SCHOOL" as acted in London with brilliant success, an entire season.

Price of admission &c., will be announced in due time.

CITY SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—We learn that there will be a mass meeting of the teachers and pupils of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist Church Sunday Schools in the Baptist Church to-morrow, (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Several short addresses will be delivered appropriate to the occasion. All interested are invited to attend.

NICE HAM.—J. W. Wheeler keeps very nice family hams at his Stall at the Baptist Grove Market, where, also, may be found various meats, sausage, &c. None can fail to be suited who will give him a call.

DEATH OF A GOOD MAN.—The Telegraph announces the death of George Peabody, which occurred in London at midnight Nov. 4th. He was, we believe, a native of Danvers, Mass., but for a long period, he has resided in Europe. He seemed to realize the full purport of the scripture declaration, "where much is given, much will be required." He had been greatly blessed and prospered, and his natures is charitable donations were commensurate with his increase. His name will be remembered and honored when that of many a warrior and statesman shall be forgotten.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS.—The news today settles the uncertainty of the complexion of the New York Legislature, two majority in the Senate for the Democrats, and at least twelve in the lower house. This is a good working majority.

EXPANSIVE.—The man with the legs, who gets up the literary light dishes for the Standard readers—(we are not alluding to Pike's wit, now, for that's as heavy as a State supper,) has localized the forests of Alabama.

"No past up Utica confines our powers. But the whole boundless continent is ours," to make locals of.

THE LOUISIANA EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.—This is one of the very best companies in the country. It has the endorsement of Bishop Wilmer, Gens. Beauregard, Hood, Harry Hays and the leading men of New Orleans. General Beauregard says: "Its Officers and Directors have been selected from our most reliable and intelligent citizens.

Instead of sending $40 000 000 annually North, our citizens can find better companies at home.

BOOK NOTICES.

TURNER'S NORTH CAROLINA ALMANAC FOR 1870. Raleigh, James H. Ennis, Publisher.

This Almanac so long and favorably known to the people of the State, has been greatly enlarged and improved.—Among its many excellencies, we note the following. The Calendar pages are in larger type, and are followed by "Conjectures of the Weather," and "Garden Calendars" for every month of special interest to Farmers and Horticulturists. In addition to the matters relative to the State Government, its Courts and other Public Institutions, we find the Rates of Postage, Digests of the Stamp Act, and the Mechanics and Laborer's Lien Law; Tables of Wages, of Weights and Measures; invaluable Farm and Household Recipes, and a seasoning of capitol anecdotes. These, with the outside calendar, in large clear type, for ready reference, attest the superiority of this Almanac, and render it indispensable to the comfort of every well-regulated family. It is a cheap almanac for ten cents, which is the retail price.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—The two new cottages, erected by Mr. Shaffer, on Fayetteville street, near the Governor's mansion are nearly ready for the painter. They are unique in style and very pretty.

The colored Baptist Church is having a belfry attached to their church building, which will add much to its appearance.

The rather uncouth dwelling, east of the Baptist Grove, at present occupied by Mr. W. R. Pepper, has been much improved by the erection of a porch in front, which hides its former somewhat naken appearance.

Mr. James M. Harris has finished the walls and roof of his new store, in East Ward, made of fragments of stone and bricks mixed with lime mortar. It is of a very substantial and durable character, and said to be the cheapest manner of building in vogue. This house is 40 by 20 feet, two stories high, and will cost when finished, about $700. Mr. Harris is so pleased with his success that he is erecting another house on his dwelling lot, on the same plan.

We notice that Mr. Alfred Upchurch is collecting the timbers for the erection of two dwellings on the Murray lot, on Hargett street.

In the Northeastern part of the city, nearly opposite the Rayner place, Col. Heck has dug the foundation and commenced the erection of a dwelling which will be an ornament to the locality.

Near the "new Depot," Mr. Simpson has a very pretty cottage approaching completion; which commands a fine view, being on an elevation above the surrounding grounds.

OFFICERS OF THE CUBA. We understand a number of the Cuba's officers arrived in the city last night. They are on their way to New York, where they are bailed to appear on the 8th inst., to answer in the U. S. District Court, a breach of the neutrality laws,

For the Sentinel.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Allow me, through the medium of your paper to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to the good citizens of Raleigh, both white and colored, for their strenuous efforts and deep sympathy in my behalf, during the late fire on Hargett street. I hold them all in grateful remembrance. Respectfully,

A. D. TAYLOR.

Nov. 6th 1869.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—'Tis seldom I allow myself to notice such a contemptible article as the one which appeared in the Standard of the 4th instant, relative to the Fire Department of our city. Being one of its members, and knowing what was done by them I could not quietly submit to such a censure without giving vent to my opinion relative to it.

Appearing, as it did, in the Local column of the above name journal, the supposition is that the Local Editor is responsible therefor.

'Tis true he graced the street with his beautiful physiognomy with both hands in his pantaloons pockets, disinterested enough to convince persons that the sole object of his wish was to get an item.—How much work did he do? What advantage was he to the sufferers—none whatever. Like a drone in a hive of bees, too lazy to work, he blames those who did it, although he is ever ready and willing to enjoy the honey.

'Tis true the facilities of the Fire Department are very limited, but with the means they have I think they acted nobly. What however is the use of any one's attempting to exert himself at a fire? What thanks does he get? Property owners never compensate him, no not even with a uniform.

Under such circumstances can you blame him? Having consumed too much time already in reply to the above named article, I hope that should any fire of importance occur near him, instead of standing like a statue, he will make use of what strength God has given him and not censure others for so doing.

A MEMBER OF THE FIRE COMPANY.

MARYLAND ELECTIONS.—The additional returns received yesterday indicate beyond a doubt the success of the regular Democratic Conservative ticket in every county in the State. So far as is known no Republican has been elected, even in the county offices, and, with one or two exceptions, no independent candidate. The vote cast in the counties is larger in proportion than that of Baltimore city and wherever the issue was doubtful the Republican ticket has been defeated by greatly increased majorities. Thus, Washington county gives a Democratic majority of more than four hundred votes over that of the last Presidential election, and considerably above that given at the election for Governor in 1867. The State Legislature will be composed, as heretofore, entirely of Democratic Conservatives.

$90 REWARD.

I WILL PAY THIS REWARD FOR THE APprehension of a mulatto man, about 30 or 35 years old, who calls himself J. Buckman, (probably Blackmail) and says he is from Orange county, and was on his way to Raleigh to join Gov. Holden's army; to others he stated he was from Greensboro' and was going to Goldsboro' where he has a brother. He broke into and robbed my store at Brassfields, on Tuesday night last and sold a number of the stolen articles along the way towards Raleigh, by which he can be identified. I will give the above reward, for his apprehension and delivery to an officer of the law, so that he may be properly dealt with.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The death of the philanthropist, George Peabody creates a profound sensation. Nearly all the morning papers have obituary articles. The Times says, "The news of Mr. Peabody's death will be received with no common sorrow on both sides of the Atlantic. The sentiment of regret will not be a mere passing tribute of gratitude to a munificent benefactor Mr. Peabody, through a long life accumulated manifold titles to be lamented. He was an ardent patriot, and was loved abroad as much as at home. He was a New Englander, who, when the South was bowed down to the dust stepped forward and claimed a right to succor her.

"He was no courtier, yet he was honored by sovereigns and princes; he was profuse in his charity, which pauperized nobody; he was a philanthropist who was liked as well as honored. There was no haing hard or narrow about his philanthropy; he simply did whatever good came in his way."

To-morrow will be a holiday. The Queen will visit the city to open the new Bridge and viaduct.

WHOLESALE & RETAIL DEALER IN FOREIGN and DOMESTIC

DRY GOODS.

WIDE AWAKE HOUSE!

DOWN STAIRS FULL; UP STAIRS FULL; SHELVES FULL; PILED ON THE COUNTER; FILED ON BOXES AND ALL ABOUT THE HOUSE!

COME TO CREECH'S!!

FRENCH MERINOES,

In which I recognize no competition, as they will be sold just as cheap as they were when Cotton was 10 cents per lb, and money equivalent to gold.

ALWAYS COME TO CREECH'S to buy MERINO DRESSES for my money is as good as anybody's; I bought them as cheap as anybody, and I intend to sell as cheap as anybody. That's the way to talk it.

GOODS FOR MEN AND BOYS' WEAR,

Such as Kentucky Jeans, Tweeds, Satinets and Cassimeres. No better assortment or greater variety in the city. In fact, I have enough to keep the boys, the youths, the young men and the old gentlemen, all warm. Step in at Creech's and look at them before you buy.

HATS! HATS! HATS!

For Gent's, Boys and Children. Pull off your old summer hat; it's too late to wear it now; style is changed. In fact, a new hat looks best, anyhow. Call at Creech's corner and examine, before you buy a new Hat.

SHOES! SHOES!

One among the largest and best assortments in the City. Come pull off your old shoes, throw away those that are worn out, and put on a new pair. Keep your feet dry, and preserve your health. Always come to Creech's before you buy.

Ladies and Misses' Hats! Hats!

No use to talk. The style has changed. Spring and Summer styles are out of vogue; so go to CREECH'S. HE ALWAYS KEEPS THE NEW STYLES.

LADIES' BONNETS.

Some small enough; some large enough; some trimmed; some unтrimmed. It won't do you any harm to call at Creech's before you buy.

CLOAKS AND SHAWLS.—A Fine Assortment.

Now don't you think you had just as well step over to CREECH'S, and look. Probably you will save time and money. In fact, that is just the very place to get the worth of your money; and permit me to tell the people, that when they visit the City, to COME TO CREECH'S, for thousands who have come, acknowledge the truthfulness of my assertions.

I have more to say to you, but will tell you the balance at my place of business.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF

TEXT-BOOKS

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Office Publishers' Sup't of Introduction,
RALEIGH, N. C. Sept. 21, 1869.

A DEPOSITORY has been established at Raleigh, in charge of R. Alfred Williams, for the following books, which were adopted Aug. 9th, 1869, by the State Board of North Carolina for uniform use in the Public Schools:

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & MCNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES,
MONTEITH'S YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
BERR'S SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October next. The maps, &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

The books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public schools in the State.

Similar terms will be made accessible to private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the state contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied, carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,
Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with
C. W. LAMBETH,
Agent for the Publishers
and Sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. WM. B. HASKELL, Prin. High School Snow Hill, N. C.:

SNOW HILL, N. C.

"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALDERT SMEDES, D. D., Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have examined the Geographies, Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable. ALDERT SMEDES.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin. Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.:

GOLDSBORO', N. C.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Gamut in particular.

J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.

From Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.: DURHAM, N. C.

I design introducing the present session McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition. M. CLOSS.

From M. L. LITTLE, Esq., Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton, N. C.

NEWTON N. C.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work M. L. LITTLE,
Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary.

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Auburn Academy, N. C.: AUBURN, N. C.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.
STINCHON IVEY.

Prof. WM. A. OBERCHAIN, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. E. DUGGER, Esq, Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.

WARRENTON N. C.

"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.

I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Gamut's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation. J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purposes.

With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.

In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Gamut, with much acceptance. G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.

WILSON, N. C.

I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.

I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.

I use Monteith's series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——— which stands next best on the list.

McNally's, the fifth book of the course is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit. J. H. FOY

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1866.

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder, National Elementary Speller, The National First and 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1866.

NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1866.

NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1866.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons waiting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

If insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 588 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
